Mental Health May

Everybody has mental health! During the month of May, we'll include some mental health highlights in each newsletter. Our Spartan Minds Matter club will also be especially active in May, hosting events, exhibits, advocating for mental health, and more.

From Mental Health America, the theme of this May's awareness campaign is "Look around, look within". We're talking about how our environments, connections, and our individual selves are linked to our mental health. If you'd like a preview, visit mhanational.org.
