SPOTLIGHT

EARTH WEEK AT LMS

Above, students remove dirt to lay down landscape fabric. Below, another student measures fabric for the beds.

Below, a student prepares to move dirt back into the beds covered in fabric. Right, the nearly finished look, sans bark.

LMS students were hard at work this week, spiffing up our campus to celebrate Earth Week 2023. Our garden club, Spartan Sprouts, were the driving force for an update to the tree beds that line the front of the building. Leadership classes pitched in to complete the project, resulting in a very tidy look for the spring season.
